WEEKLY QUOTE

Realize that everything connects to everything else.”

WEEKLY TIP

Poor documentation can be an Achilles heel for a small business. Storing invoices, bank statements, credit notes, and other financial documents in one place is vital, be it a file cabinet or a digital vault.

WEEKLY RIDDLE

They can hear you, you can touch them, but they will never see you. What are they?

Last week's riddle:

Rick was born on December 4th, yet he claims his birthday always occurs in the summer. How is this possible?

Last week's answer:

He was born in the Southern Hemisphere.

EXISTING HOME SALES HIT A 10-YEAR PEAK

Rising 4.4% for March, resales surpassed expectations – analysts polled by Reuters projected a gain of 2.5%. The National Association of Realtors said that sales were 5.9% improved from a year before, and that put them at their best level since February 2007, even with existing home inventory 6.6% slimmer than in March 2016.¹

Department of Commerce data showed a 6.8% reduction in housing starts in March. Even with that fall, starts were up 9.2% in 12 months. Building permits rose 3.6% last month, resulting in a 17.0% annualized increase.²

LIGHT SWEET CRUDE SLIDES 7% IN 5 TRADING DAYS

WTI crude settled at $49.62 Friday, 7.4% below where it had closed a week earlier. One influence was a Baker Hughes report showing that the number of active rigs had increased for a fourteenth consecutive week.³
